PARIS GIRL IN CARLISLE SHOOTING

While on his way to deliver a note to a Paris girl by the name of Dunaway, at the home of Ida Arnold, in Carlisle, Lloyd Reed, of Carlisle, was shot in the back with a shotgun. Simon Wasson later admitted doing the shooting, and was held to await the action of the grand jury. He waived examining trial and was released on bond.

According to his reported statement Reed was merely acting as messenger. It was said that an argument arose at the home, and that Reed was ordered to leave the house, and when about fifty yards away was shot in the back.

Wasson, Ida Arnold, her daughter, Pencil Arnold, and the Dunaway girl, whose home is in Paris, were arrested and placed in jail. The three women were tried in the County Court at Carlisle, Tuesday, and released on condition that they leave Carlisle.

PARIS MAN VICTIM OF HOLD-UP

A bold attempt at hold-up, followed by the shooting of the intended victim, was staged in the foot bridge over Houston creek, under the Louisville & Nashville railroad bridge, Wednesday night.

Charlie Robinson, a young white man in the employ of the Louisville & Nashville, was returning from his work to his home near the Paris jail, at the foot of Main street. In the dim light he saw a man approaching, and heard a demand for him to throw up his hands. The young man being frightened, began to run, instead of complying with the demand. The hold-up man, described as a stockily built negro, fired one shot, the bullet passing through the left arm of Robinson, who continued to run.

A search of the neighborhood was made later in the evening by the police, but to no avail. Robinson was unable to give an accurate description of the highwayman, other than he was a heavy-set negro.

"GREENBACK SHOWER"

Edmund Harp, employee of a Paris feed store, started in an automobile to make a deposit in a local bank. As he alighted from the machine, a gust of wind caught him, blowing the bank book from his hand, and scattering the greenbacks in every direction. Scores of people aided in recovering the money, but a recount showed a shortage of $36, which has not been found.

RIB BROKEN IN FALL

Several days ago while in the bath room of his home on Houston avenue, E. M. Wheeler, of the E. M. Wheeler Furniture Co., was seized with a fainting spell, and fell to the floor, striking his head and side against the edge of the tub. One rib in his right side was broken. He has been confined to his home since, and shows very little improvement.

A LESSON IN BUSINESS GEOGRAPHY

Those who live in Portland, Maine, may drink a brand of coffee that has a local sale. Those who live in Portland, Oregon, may never have heard of it. In Springfield, Mass., a locally sold coffee may be somewhat popular. In Springfield, Ohio, it is unknown. Citizens of St. Joseph, Michigan, may drink a blend of coffee that is in fair demand in that locality. To the folks of St. Joseph, Missouri, it means nothing.

But, go anywhere in the good old U. S. A., and say "Chase & Sanborn's Seal Brand," and every one in that town who knows anything about coffee will say, "That's the lodge I belong to." Sold by

NEWS OF THE COURTS

In the County Court Judge George Batterton appointed Judge Denis Dundon as administrator of the estate of the late Mary Gillard, with County Attorney D. D. Cline as surety. Bond was placed at $500.

J. R. Worthington, who was arrested last week on a warrant charging him with stealing a dog some time ago from H. M. Bridges, was given a hearing in the County Court before Judge George Batterton, who heard the testimony of a score of witnesses on both sides. On account of the conflicting nature of the testimony offered, Judge Batterton reached the conclusion that it was insufficient to convict, and Worthington was dismissed. The dog, said to have been valued at $200, was recovered several days ago by Bridges, who found him, it was stated, in the possession of Worthington's brother, in Boyle county.

Stanley Asbury, of the county, was arrested by Sheriff M. Peale Collier, on a warrant, charging him with failing to secure license for a number of dogs which he was said to have had in his possession. It was stated that at one time Asbury had seven dogs, only two of which wore license tags, and they were females wearing a male license. He was fined five dollars and costs.

Newton Strother, colored, was appointed as administrator of Richard Strother, colored, with Maggie Strother and R. M. Gilkey as sureties, on bond of $1,000.

Robert Link, proprietor of the grocery at the corner of High and Eighth streets, and former member of the Paris City Council, who was arrested by Sheriff M. Peale Collier and Deputy Sheriff James Gibson, was given a hearing in the County Court Wednesday before Judge George Batterton. Link was not represented by counsel, but conducted his own defense, questioning witnesses. After hearing the evidence on the charge of having moonshine liquor in his possession for the purpose of sale, Judge Batterton imposed a jail sentence of thirty days, and a fine of $100.

During the progress of the case Mrs. Annie English Shouse was sent to jail for six hours for contempt of court. Although she had not been called as a witness in the case she persisted in taking the stand and talking, while in an alleged intoxicated condition.

Link, whose witnesses had testified that the liquor was brought to the store that morning by Mrs. Shouse, took an appeal of the case, and secured Claude Redmon as surety on his appeal bond of $100.

—Roy Vanzant, who was turned over to the Harrison Circuit Court by Sheriff M. Peale Collier and remanded to jail on default of $1,500 bond, was released from custody at Cynthiana, when several friends came forward and furnished bond.

The Harrison County Fiscal Court at its recent meeting appointed B. F. Bedford as commissioner from Harrison county to act jointly with the commissioners of Bourbon county, and the road engineers and the State Highway Commission in determining the bridge to be built over Silas Creek, dividing Bourbon and Harrison counties.

BASKET BALL TO OPEN

Members of the young men's gymnasium basket ball classes at the Y. M. C. A. have decided to begin practice Monday. A church league is one of the suggested plans.

ALVERSON SELLS PAPER

The Harlan Enterprise, which changed ownership some months ago, when it was purchased by Jesse M. Alverson, of Paris, has again passed into other hands, having been sold recently to William Baker lately of Lexington. Mr. Baker has assumed charge of the Enterprise as editor and business manager. He is a graduate of the College of Arts and Sciences of the University of Kentucky, in the class of 1920. Mr. Alverson's son, Lassing Alverson, has been very sick for some time at the family home in Harlan.

INCENDIARISM SUSPECTED IN GROCERY FIRE

The total destruction of B. H. Farris & Co.'s grocery and the damaging of the adjoining dwelling at Nineteenth and Main streets by a fire which broke out about two o'clock yesterday morning, is thought to have been the work of incendiaries to cover up another crime that of robbery.

An alarm from Box 35 shortly before two o'clock Wednesday morning called the department. When they reached the place the store was a mass of flames, and the adjoining dwelling almost so. By hard work the firemen subdued the fire in the dwelling, but could do little to save the store. Mr. Farris has $2,000 insurance on his stock, which, with the building, was a total loss. All the furniture in his home was saved with the assistance of the firemen, neighbors and volunteers. Damage estimated at $1,500 was caused the house. Both houses were owned by James Estes.

The flames communicated to a garage operated by Mr. Farris, which was also destroyed. Two cables belonging to the Cumberland Telephone Co., and one to the Home Telephone Co. were burned, putting all the telephones in that vicinity out of commission. A lot of furniture belonging to a Mr. Wilhoit, which had been newly repaired and varnished, and stored in the garage, was destroyed.

FIRE DESTROYS BARN

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed the tobacco barn belonging to John Darnall, near Hutchison, in this county. The building contained a large quantity of tobacco, hay, feed and farm implements. The loss was estimated at $7,000, with $1,500 insurance.

HURST HOME INSURANCE COMPANY LOSES SUIT

In the Bath Circuit Court at Owingsville, the jury trying the case of Jas. B. Ledford vs. Hurst Home Insurance Co., of Millersburg, rendered a verdict for the plaintiff.

The suit was the outgrowth of a fire insurance policy for $5,000 held by Mr. Ledford on his home at Bethel, which was destroyed by fire several months ago. The Hurst Home refused to pay the policy on the ground that Ledford did not notify the company when he took out additional insurance on his residence.

The case will be taken to the Court of Appeals. In this case there are several issues which have not been decided by the Kentucky courts and the decision of the Appellate Court will be watched with much interest by co-operative and mutual insurance companies doing business in this State.

SENATOR ERNST'S GRANDSON KILLED BY AUTO

A telegram received by relatives in Paris, Wednesday, from Senator Richard P. Ernst told of the death of his grandson, "Billie" Ernst, who was killed as the result of an automobile accident near Asheville, N. C. Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ernst, parents of the child, who live in Covington, have been visiting in Asheville. Senator Ernst, who is making his home in Covington, has cancelled all business and political engagements. No particulars of the accident were given in the Senator's telegram.

The little fellow was an unusually intelligent lad, and was a general favorite. He was related to Mrs. Belle Brent Alexander, Hugh Brent and N. Ford Brent, of Paris. The body will be brought to Covington to-day for interment on the Ernst family lot in the Covington Cemetery.

INJURED BY AUTO

While en route from his home in Carlisle to Paris, George B. Linville, lost control of his machine, which ran into a fence near the side of the road between Millersburg and Carlisle. He was painfully but not seriously hurt, and came on to Paris where he received medical attention. Mr. Linville returned to Carlisle later in the day.

The Near East may be a long ways off, but it is near enough to suit most Paris people.

What has become of the old-fashioned Paris man who used to inhale his coffee through a mustache cup?

Holding a grudge against a man is about the same thing as having a boil on your nose—and keep picking away at it so it won't heal.

Sometimes when you feel as if you had a hard time, just take a walk through a hospital and see how little it takes to make a cripple or a dying person smile; observe the patience of those who suffer; and you'll go away ashamed that you ever whined.

If we took a little time now and then to let people know how much we care about them, the world would shine with new happiness.

Job may have been a patient man, but he never had the job of trying to find out who really won the championship in the Blue Grass League race.

I read a motor novelette And didn't like it much; The author dealt with cams and tires

Ignition, gears and such. I sort of floundered through it Like going through a bog; When I want reading such as this I'll get a catalogue.

Several years ago a poet sang: "Awake, awake, O gracious heart; there's someone knocking." But nowadays knockers are so commonplace it hardly seems worth while to wake up for them.

Baseball players talk of forming a union to protect their rights. Poor slaves who only make from $5,000 to $30,000 a year ought to be safeguarded in their right, and protected from the robbers who are trying to starve them.

George Beban declares that he didn't say that eighty per cent. of the movie actresses are beautiful but dumb. Maybe the phrase he intended to use was: "Beautiful, but damned."

A family in Lawrence county, Missouri, demanding aid from a charitable organization was found to own a home and to have an income of $37 a week. Well, just some Paris person try to maintain a home, an automobile and a family on $37 a week.

With the baseball season ended, and all the "heroes of the diamond" gone to other fields of endeavor the husky shock-haired kickers of the pigskin now take their place in feminine affections. And it is doubtful if they are any better off by the change.

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 15

THE MINISTRY OF JOHN THE BAPTIST

LESSON TEXT—Luke 3:1-22.
GOLDEN TEXT—Repent ye, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.—Matt. 3:2.

REFERENCE MATERIAL—Matt. 11:2-19; Phil. 2:5-11.

PRIMARY TOPIC—What John Said About Jesus.

JUNIOR TOPIC—John Preaching and Baptizing.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—A Fearless Reformer.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—Repentance: What It Is and What It Does.

I. The Degeneracy of the Times (vv. 1, 2).

The Jews had sunk to a very low level of civil, moral and religious life. Luke carefully enumerates the civil and religious rulers in order to show the profligacy of the times, and therefore the need of a messenger to call the people back to God and virtue. Herod, the son of the Great, was a murderer. Annas and Caiaphas were corrupt ecclesiastical rulers.

II. The Nature of John's Ministry (vv. 3-6).

In the wilderness he underwent a discipline which fitted him for his task. Out of the wilderness he flashed forth preaching the baptism of repentance for the remission of sins (v. 3). This ministry is declared to be a fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy. The message was described as one calling upon the nation to prepare for the coming of the Messiah. This preparation was presented under the figure of a monarch of the East about to make a journey. A servant was sent before to prepare the highway. Valleys needed to be filled, mountains and hills needed to be lowered, crooked places needed to be made straight and rough places needed to be made smooth. Today before the nations will receive Christ the valleys need to be filled with righteous deeds, the exceeding high mountains of sin and iniquity need to be brought low, the crooked dealings of the business world must be straightened out, and the rough ways of nations and individuals must be smoothed out. Men must repent of their sins before they can receive Christ.

III. The Content of John's Message (vv. 7-18).

1. Denunciation of Sin (vv. 7, 8). He called them "a generation of vipers." This shows that he charged them with deceitfulness and wickedness. Knowing the subtle hypocrisy of these Jews, he demanded evidence of their sincerity—the genuineness of their repentance was to be demonstrated by their works.

2. Announcement of Judgment (v. 9). He declared that the axe was laid at the root of the tree and that the tree not bringing forth fruit was to be hewn down and cast into the fire. John made it very plain that for their sins they should be called into judgment. Paul's preaching of a judgment to come made Felix tremble (Acts 24:25).

3. Instructions to the Inquirers (vv. 10-14). (1) The people (vv. 10, 11). Each man was to turn from his besetting sin and show love and kindness to his fellow men. Clothing and food were to be given those who had need. They were to turn from a life of selfishness and greed and do unto others as they would be done by. (2) Publicans (vv. 12, 13). These tax-gatherers who were guilty of greed and oppression were not asked to give up their occupation, but to exact only that which was appointed by law. (3) The soldiers (v. 14). These were likely the policemen of that day—at least men on military duty. He told them to extort money from no man, to accuse none falsely, and to be content with their wages. To all these classes he made it clear that they should henceforth perform their duty from a motive of love instead of selfishness and greed.

4. Testimony to Jesus (vv. 15-18). The people were musing in their hearts as to whether John was indeed the Messiah. When John perceived this he with fine humility declared that his mission was so lowly in comparison with Christ's that he would be unworthy to perform the menial act of a slave in loosing the latchet of His shoes. John baptized with water, but Christ, he declared, would baptize with the Holy Ghost and with fire.

IV. John's Imprisonment (vv. 19, 20).

Because of his reproof of Herod for his wicked lewdness and other sins John went to the dungeon. The preacher of righteousness must become a martyr. God's faithful prophets are usually despised by the world, even cast into prison, burned, or beheaded.

Idleness.

Idleness is the gate of all harms. An idle man is like a house that hath no walls; the devils may enter on every side.—Chaucer.

Life's Ills.

Think of the ills from which you are exempt, and it will aid you to bear patiently those which now you may suffer.—Cecil.

To Learn to Pray.

SWEET MUSIC TO THE HOUSEWIFE'S EARS

No words of tongue or pen could bring more happiness to the thrifty, economical housewife than the prices quoted below.

AT PIGGLY WIGGLY a little child can shop as well as the most experienced buyer as only standard nationally known products are found on the PIGGLY WIGGLY shelves.

AT PIGGLY WIGGLY every article is priced at a small margin of profit. It is not the policy of PIGGLY WIGGLY to offer specials, and then make up the loss by overcharging on other articles.

AT PIGGLY WIGGLY there is no one to offer "Something just as good," or to persuade you to buy something you don't want.

THE SUCCESS of the PIGGLY WIGGLY is no miracle—it is simply the outcome of eliminating extravagance and unnecessary service—buying for cash in tremendous quantities—selling for cash no bookkeeping or clerical expense—no delivery—and expecting of each customer the service of serving themselves — a sensible, practical system.

BALLARD PROPERTY SOLD

The handsome home of W. M. Ballard, located on Sixteenth street, between Cypress and High streets, was sold publicly yesterday afternoon to W. M. Phillips, of the Phillips Meat Market, for the reported price of $3,500. The home contains six rooms and a large reception hall, and is thoroughly modern in every respect. The sale was made by Harris, Speakes & Harris, and was well advertised in THE NEWS. Mr. Ballard will move to Covington to make that city his home in the future.

IMPROVEMENT IN STORE

One of the most noticeable improvements made in Paris property in recent years is the new front which has been installed at the clothing store of I. L. Price & Co., next to the First National Bank. The new front is an artistic creation of glass and copper, with marble trimmings, giving it an effect both pleasing to the eye and inviting to the customer. Should any of the old-timers who knew the Price store in the old days come back to earth now they would not be able to recognize it. Lawrence Price is so proud of the new front that he is thinking of having it encased in fireproof and stormproof covering at the close of business each day.

DISTINGUISHED VISITOR COMING

Announcement is made of the coming to Paris of Dr. Robert B. S. Hammond, of Sydney, N. S. W., Australia, on Sunday, October 15th. Dr. Hammond will address the people of Paris and Bourbon county in a union mass meeting at the Paris Methodist church, at 7:15 p. m.

You and your friends are very cordially invited to hear this eloquent speaker from far-off Australia. He will give our people a great address and we should give him a great crowd. No admission will be charged.

A QUEER FIND

Two ten-dollar bills, lost on the highway near Paris, are awaiting identification and an honest claimant as the result of a boy's peculiar find.

A pin punctured the tire of a bicycle ridden by Clarence Mulvey, fourteen-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Mulvey, who recently moved to Paris from Robertson county. Stopping to make an examination young Mulvey found what he thought was a piece of green paper adhering closely to the tire. He removed the paper, which, upon closer inspection, proved to be two $10 bills pinned together. When the pin was removed the tire did not become deflated. But young Mulvey became so elated over his strange find that he didn't notice that. He returned home and reported the matter to his parents. Young Mulvey says the real owner may obtain the money by proving property.

The Pullman Gives You an Extra Room Without Increasing Your Rent

EVERY family needs extra sleeping quarters in the home in case of emergency. Unexpected visitors come; a nurse may be necessary in any home at any time; you may wish friends to remain over night or to week-end with you; you may wish to accommodate a friend or good neighbor for a night or two; the man of the family may wish a business friend remain over night, whatever the emergency or occasion may be, a Pullman provides the extra sleeping quarters.

Some families may want to rent out a room because of present high rents. Some families may be moving into smaller apartments with fewer sleeping rooms—these are but SOME of the reasons for the immense popularity of the "Pullman."

Here is an opportunity to secure the genuine Pullman, the Davenport Bed that matches up with other furnishings in your home. You can get the same designs, the same woods (mahogany, walnut or oak), the same comfort that you get in the finest stationary davenports.

Here is a beautiful living room piece of furniture that is "as handsome as the finest davenport, as comfortable as the best bed"—one that gives double, or day-and-night service—two pieces of furniture at the price of one.

RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED BY BOURBON POST AMERICAN LEGION, OCT. 7, 1922

Whereas, certain newspapers are publishing "Memoirs of the Kaiser," which is a nefarious form of German propaganda, which may influence and prevent some people from becoming good American citizens, and

Whereas, the spreading of German propaganda for monetary gain is but profiteering in Moral Stamina and Potential American Patriotism and Citizenship, and

Whereas, these papers have paid to the Kaiser an enormous sum of money which will enable him to live in luxury, while thousands of our comrades lie in heroes' graves to-day and others are disabled and suffering because they were willing to make the sacrifice to check his dastardly ambition for lust and power.

Therefore, Be it resolved by Bourbon Post, American Legion, That we condemn the spreading of German propaganda in any form whatsoever by anyone.

That we condemn war profiteers in general, but especially do we condemn profiteers in American patriotism and character.

That we condemn all efforts to give aid and condolence to the Kaiser, conceded to be the arch criminal of all ages, who still flaunts his insults in the faces of our thousands of disabled comrades, lying in hospitals and scattered over the country, and reflects upon the memory of our dead heroes who gave their lives in defense of civilization.

That copies of these resolutions be furnished to our local papers and our State and National journals.

An opinionated man is one whose opinions do not agree with your own.

When you feel discouraged, nervous, tired, worried or despondent it is a sure sign you need MOTT'S NERVE PILLS.

They renew the normal vigor and make life worth living. Be sure and ask for Mott's Nerve Pills by drugists.

PARIS HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

The Southern Association has chosen the Paris High School for one of the participating members in the Southern Association. Hereafter our High School will have the privilege of sending a representative to the Southern Association to take part in the deliberations of that meeting.

This is a distinct honor that has come to our school. The meeting this year is to be held at New Orleans, December 5 and 6, and the Paris High School expects to be represented.

Word reached Paris High School Monday that Misses Elizabeth Taylor, Virginia Morrison and Mercy Park, Paris High School graduates of last year, attending Kentucky Wesleyan College, made a grade "A" in English for the first month. This is a significant achievement inasmuch as there are sixty freshmen in Kentucky Wesleyan this year, and only four received the grade of "A," three of the four being from the Paris High School.

One of the most enjoyable assembly periods we have had at the high school was held Monday morning, when we had as our speakers Dr. Wm. Kenney, member of the City Council, and Mr. Lew Lanus, of Cincinnati. Mr. Lanus was a physical trainer in the Government service during the war, and has had wonderful experience in the training of men. His address was unusually interesting, and his illustration of the Jui-Jutsi system of defense showed wonderful possibilities in use of this system. We all enjoyed the visit of Dr. Kenney and Mr. Lanus.

Miss Ola Johnson, State Supervisor of Home Economics Education, Frankfort, spent Tuesday visiting the Paris High School Department of Home Economics. While here she was the special guest of Miss Maud Asbury, of the Department of Sewing, and Miss Irene Evans, of the Department of Cooking. Miss Johnson was very complimentary of the superior equipment found in the Paris High School, and of the high grade of work being done in these departments.

Miss Mabel Campbell, Federal agent for Vocational Home Economics, Washington, D. C., accompanied Miss Johnson, and took special interest in visiting the Federal Board courses that are being operated in the Paris schools at present. Miss Johnson is the successor of Miss Bessie Madison in this department of work in the State, and is making a splendid record. Miss Campbell, before taking up this work in Washington, was the Home Economics teacher in the University of Kentucky.

Misses Nannie D. Clark, Mary M. Daniel, Lena Crowe, Minnie S. Kiser, Kattie M. Burbury, Irene Alexander and Prof. C. S. Holbrook were the new students who entered Dr. P. K. Holmes' class in Hygiene last Saturday.

The hour and day for this class are permanently fixed. The class will meet Saturday at 8 o'clock at the Paris High School. The course will give four University credits and is a required course at the University. After Saturday, October 14, this class will be closed to new students.

Dr. Tuthill's history course which meets Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, will be closed to new students after Tuesday, October 17.

Prof. Farquhar's class in the English Bible, which meets Saturday morning at ten o'clock, will be closed to new students after October 21.

These are unusually attractive courses, and if you are interested in any of them, get into these classes on or before the above dates.

QUIT TOBACCO

So Easy To Drop Cigarette, Cigar or Chewing Habit

No-To-Bac has helped thousands to break the habit. Whenever you have a longing for a smoke or chew, just place a harmless No-To-Bac tablet in your mouth instead. All desire stops. Shortly the habit is completely broken, and you are better off mentally, physically, financially. It's so easy, so simple. Get a box of No-To-Bac and if it doesn't release you from all craving for tobacco in any form, your druggist will refund your money without question. (F-t)

Faulty Philosophy.

Nothing is more obviously false than that the remedy for the inequality among men consists in their return to the condition of savages and beasts. Philosophy will never be understood if we approach the study of its mysteries with so narrow and illiberal conceptions of its universality.—Shelly.

The Ring Finger.

The fourth finger, which has less motion than the others, has the advantage of being protected by the other fingers. It owes to this circumstance a comparative immunity from injury, and this accounts for its use as the ring finger.

DYE BLOUSE OR BABY'S COAT IN DIAMOND DYES

"Diamond Dyes" add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, draperies, everything. Every package contains directions so simple any woman can put new, rich, fadeless colors into her worn garments or draperies even if she has never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind. Then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton or mixed goods. (adv)

NO MONEY NECESSARY

It's interesting, educational and fun-making, and costs nothing to try. It is not a subscription contest, and you don't have to send in a single subscription in order to win a prize. We know this is the best puzzle you have ever seen—nothing hard, just different, that's all. We venture to say that you never have had as much fun as you will have while playing this game. Do not delay—start your list of "S-words" tonight and see if you will not agree with us.

FOLLOW THESE RULES

1. This Puzzle Game is open to any man, woman, boy or girl who is not an employee of The Cincinnati Enquirer or a member of an employee's family. It costs nothing to take part in the game.
2. Answers should be written on one side of the paper only and words numbered consecutively—1, 2, 3, etc. Write your full name and address on the top of each sheet. Answers must be mailed before midnight, Monday, November 6, 1922, and addressed to H. C. Kloecker, Puzzle Manager, The Cincinnati Enquirer.
3. Only words which are found in the English Dictionary will be counted. Compound, hyphenated and obsolete words will be considered as errors. If the singular of a word is used the plural cannot be counted and vice versa. Words of the same spelling can be used only once, even though used to designate different objects. The same object can be named only once, although it is more than one word equally applicable to an object any one of them will count.
4. The person sending in the largest and nearest correct list of words beginning with the letter "S," naming objects shown in the picture, will win First Prize; second nearest, Second Prize, etc. One point will be given for each correct word sent in and one point deducted for each incorrect word or omission. This will be figured on a percentage basis. Neatness, style or handwriting have no bearing upon deciding the winners.
5. All answers will receive the same consideration, regardless of whether or not a subscription is sent in.
6. Persons may work together in preparing their lists, but only one prize will be awarded to any one household. Nor will more than one prize be awarded to any group outside of the family where two or more have been working together.
7. In the event of a tie for any prize offered the full amount of such prize will be paid to each person so tied. The correct list will be made up of correct words submitted by contestants, and will not consist of any "master" or "predetermined" list.
8. The following well-known citizens of Cincinnati, having no connection with The Enquirer, will act as judges. They will use as their authority Webster's New International Dictionary, and contestants agree to accept their decision as final and conclusive:
Mr. A. L. Behrmer, Postmaster, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Mr. Randall J. Condon, Superintendent of Public Schools, Cincinnati, Ohio.
Judge Edw. T. Dixon, Cincinnati, Ohio.
9. These judges will meet directly following the close of the Puzzle Game, and the names of the Prize Winners and the winning list of words, together with the correct list, will be published in The Enquirer just as quickly thereafter as the judges can complete the checking.

A FRIEND IN NEED A FRIEND INDEED

Writes Mrs. Hardee Regarding
Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound

Los Angeles, Calif.—"I must tell you that I am a true friend to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken it off and on for twenty years and it has helped me change from a delicate girl to a stout, healthy woman. When I was married I was sick all the time until I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was in bed much of my time with pains and had to have the doctor every month. One day I found a little book in my yard in Guthrie, Oklahoma, and I read it through and got the medicine—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—and took eight bottles and used the Sanative Wash. I at once began to get stronger. I have got many women to take it just by telling them what it has done for me. I have a young sister whom it has helped in the same way it helped me. I want you to know that I am a 'friend indeed,' for you were a 'friend in need.'"

—Mrs. GEORGE HARDEE, 1043 Byram St., Los Angeles, California

Let Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound be a "friend indeed" to you.

WEATHER FORECASTS GREAT AID TO FARMERS

Special weather forecasts furnished by the United States Department of Agriculture, through county extension agents, in seven New York counties were of direct service to over 2,500 fruit growers in that State in guiding their spraying operations and saved them several thousands of dollars in the management of their fruit crop, according to reports to the New York State College of Agriculture. In four of these counties a telephone relay system was developed by means of which it was possible to warn the growers quickly when it was time to apply the spray. This system was used throughout the season whenever occasion demanded. At other times and in counties where this relay system was not used circular letters and post cards carried the information.

STRAIN TOO GREAT

Hundreds of Paris Readers Find
Daily Toil a Burden

The hustle and worry of business men,
The hard work and stooping of workmen,
The woman's household cares,
Often weaken the kidneys.
Backache, headache, dizziness,
Kidney troubles, urinary troubles—frequently follow.

A Paris citizen tells you what to do.

O. T. Sprake, contractor and carpenter, 304 Main street, says: "I have been a sufferer from kidney trouble for many years and Doan's Kidney Pills is the best medicine I have ever been able to find. They always give me fine relief and I can't recommend them too highly. I have been in bad shape at times and backache caused me to lay off work for several days. I was greatly annoyed by the frequent passage of the kidney secretions, which contained a sandy sediment. When I have any need for such a medicine I use Doan's and it does not take them long to fix me up in good shape."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Sprake had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Memory Fails Small Boy.

Little Richard Castle, son of the cashier of the Bell Telephone company, on seeing his aunt, who has just returned from Seattle, where she has lived since her marriage to Fred Fellow two years ago, remarked: "I remember Aunt Helen, but I don't remember that baby." — Wichita (Kan.) Eagle.

Anyway, It's a Pretty Legend.

There is an ancient Chinese superstition that if you eat enough peaches you will live forever. Many years ago, it is said, a Chinese girl, believing in this superstition, gave her sailor sweetheart a peach seed to carry for luck on a trip to America. While in this country he lost the seed, and from it grew the first peach tree in the United States.

WOMAN BALLOONIST IN SERIOUS CONDITION

Mrs. C. C. Chambers, known professionally as Miss Stella Jaeger, world-famous balloonist, who was in Paris, a few weeks ago, and who was badly injured in a fall at Owingsville, is at St. Joseph's Hospital in Lexington, where her physicians say she has a fighting chance for life.

Mrs. Chambers was brought to the Lexington hospital from Owingsville Friday night. She was performing one of her parachute jumps of changing from one parachute to another, when the second one failed to open. She fell 250 feet into a tree, and it is thought suffered a broken back. An X-ray examination was made at the hospital, but the physicians have not issued a statement on the exact nature of her injuries, but have said she is in a very serious condition.

STRONG FEATURES AT LOCAL MOVIE HOUSES

Some people think that all you need to contribute to a "Fresh Air Fund" is fresh air, but Tom Moore, as "Honest" Tom Smith in "Beating the Game," his newest Goldwin picture at the Alamo and Grand this afternoon and night, found a way to open the purse strings of a hesitating populace. He also devised a "Trade at Home" scheme that built up a town. For his honesty and earnest efforts, he was elected Mayor.

Western speed is the speediest speed there is. And "Western Speed," a Fox picture, with Charles Jones as star, is coming to the Alamo and Grand to-morrow (Saturday) afternoon and night. It is a production of strength and American red-bloodedness, and presents an unusually absorbing story of love, flight and adventure.

Agnes Ayres, popular Paramount star, will be seen at the Alamo and Grand, Monday afternoon and night in "The Ordeal," said to be a powerful dramatic Paramount picture. The production was directed by Paul Powell and there are many thrilling moments in the action. Conrad Nagle heads a strong supporting cast of players.

GNADINGER

—A message from Chicago to friends in this city told of the death in that city of John Gnadinger, for many years a resident of Paris, and well-known to many of the older generation here. Mr. Gnadinger had been in declining health for some time, caused by hardening of the arteries and a complication of troubles, though his family were not aware that his condition was critical.

Mr. Gnadinger was a son of the late John Gnadinger, who for many years conducted a bakery and confectionery in the room on Main street at present occupied by the Cahal barber shop. He was educated in the public schools of Paris, and afterward attended school in Lexington and at other points. On his return from college he assisted his father in conducting his business in this city, and was for several terms in the revenue service as gauger and storekeeper. He was a young man of many superior attainments, and was genial and companionable, with a large circle of friends who regret his passing.

Mr. Gnadinger was a nephew of Mr. A. Gnadinger, of Cynthiana. His parents, who preceded him to the grave many years ago, during their residence in Paris, built the home on Duncan avenue, at present occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Wm. G. Talbott. After leaving Paris Mr. Gnadinger moved to Chicago, where he was engaged in a mercantile business that brought him financial success.

Mr. Gnadinger is survived by his widow, whom he married during his residence in Chicago. Several brothers and sisters have died in the past several years. Mr. Gnadinger was the eldest of the boys whom the Paris people will remember well.
